Human Trafficking Research – Maritime Southeast Asia

Project Title	Human Trafficking Research – Maritime Southeast Asia
Summary	Research and analyze current human trafficking trends and governmental responses to combat trafficking in Maritime Southeast Asia to contribute to background information for the Trafficking in Persons Report.
Country	United States

Project Description

Research and analyze current human trafficking trends and governmental responses to combat trafficking in several Maritime Southeast Asian countries to contribute to background information for the Trafficking in Persons Report, through open source media searches, government websites, international organization publications, books, and journals.

This position will primarily focus on Indonesia and Malaysia, but also include Brunei, Singapore, Timor-Leste, and the Pacific Islands of Marshall Islands, Micronesia, and Palau.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Data analysis
Political Analysis
Research
Writing

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

None